Roosevelt - Message to Congress
Jan 6, 1941 - Four
Freedom II

Speech                      want
Worship.                    fear

"In the future days, which we seek to make secure, we ~~to~~ look forward to a world founded upon four essential human freedoms:

"The first is freedom of speech of expression - everywhere in the world."

"The second is freedom of every person to worship God in his own way - everywhere in the world."

"The third is freedom from want - which, translated into world terms, means economic understandings which will secure to every nation a healthy, peaceful life for its inhabitants - everywhere in the world."

"The 4th is freedom from fear - which, translated into world terms, means a worldwide reduction of armaments to such a point of in such a thorough fashion that no nation will be in a position to commit an act of physical aggression against any neighbor - anywhere in the world."
